Re: United States v. Charles McGonigal, No. 1:23-cr-00016-JHR

Your Honor,

We write as counsel for Charles McGonigal to respectfully request an extension of Mr. McGonigal's surrender date to the Bureau of Prison of 11 weeks, from March 18, 2024 to June 3, 2024. As of yet, Mr. McGonigal has not been designated and an extension in his surrender date will [REDACTED] spare the United States from burdens arising from a pre-designation surrender to the custody of the local United States Marshals Service.

Your Honor sentenced Mr. McGonigal on December 14, 2023 and then directed him to surrender to begin serving his sentence on March 18, 2024. In a parallel case in the District of Columbia, Judge Kollar-Kotelly adopted the same surrender date after pronouncing sentence in that case on February 16, 2024. Since then, Mr. McGonigal has been getting his affairs in order including seeking medical exams and treatment. [REDACTED]

Because Mr. McGonigal has not yet been designated as of this letter, and because [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
we respectfully request a new surrender date of June 3, 2024 to allow Mr. McGonigal to [REDACTED] prepare for surrender, and to allow the Bureau of Prisons additional time to determine his facility of designation.
